

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Existing Workforce Development

A project initiative as part of the NTSSS Employment Pathway Program

Project Profile:

Strengthening the workforce for better service delivery

For the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Existing Workforce Development project initiative up to 18 staff at Carbul Medical Services in Toowoomba and Warwick will undergo a Certificate IV in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Primary Health Care delivered by TAFE Queensland South West (TQSW).

Specialist electives will be included in the program to further support workers to provide services that have a focus on mental health and disability.

Project Aim

To build skills and knowledge in Aboriginal Health Workers to be able to better support the health and wellness needs of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples within the Toowoomba and South West region.
