Did you know?

- 36,000 new workers are needed in the Queensland disability sector
- Not all jobs require a qualification
- Employers are looking for candidates with certain values to fit the Industry

Join North Queensland Roadshow to:

Connect with local employers - Roadshows are recruitment events that aim to fill a wide variety of jobs in the local disability sector.

Access a one-stop Industry shop – Hear about a typical day working in disability, and courses to boost employment options and kick start your career.

Speed interview - Take part in a short Speed Interview to show you're right for the job!
