Did you know?

- 36,000 new workers are needed in the Qld disability sector under the NDIS
- Allied Health workers are in high demand, especially in regional Queensland
- Employers are looking for students & graduates to fill roles in the sector.

Join the Allied Health Roadshow to:

Connect students & graduates with employers - Roadshows are mass online recruitment events aimed at filling a wide variety of FT & PT Allied Health roles in metropolitan, regional and remote areas of Queensland.

Live recruitment – At NDIS Jobs Roadshows you will hear from a range of Allied Health employers who are currently recruiting graduates for Physiotherapy, Occupational Therapy, Mental Health & Allied Health Assistant roles across Queensland.

Speed interviews – After the Roadshow, take part in online Speed Interviews with local employers about real vacancies. Prove YOU are the right person for the job!
